

A KIDSiderate® Christmas

10 tips to enjoy Christmas Town with kids under age 9

- 1. Arrive early, Busch Gardens® Christmas Town™ opens at 2 p.m.. Head directly to Santa's Workshop at the North Pole (Rhinefeld village). Hint: Don't follow the herd. Turn left at the crossroads in Scotland for a slightly quicker walk to the North Pole.
- 2. After visiting Santa, head over to the North Pole's Das Gingerbread Haus for some sweet treats. Take it from us, the homemade fudge is amazing.
- 3. Keep everyone warm on those chilly nights with refillable hot chocolate mugs. The sturdy plastic mug with a closable lid is kid-proof and will pay for itself in no time with unlimited $1.29 refills.
- 4. Hot chocolate in hand, take a break at O' Tannenbaum, our 50-foot Christmas Tree that dances with light every 30 minutes. While waiting for the show, the kids will love the model train setup inside Der Marktplatz.
- 5. Attend one of Christmas Town's live performances, like Gloria! or 'Twas That Night™, to remind yourself and your kids about the real meaning of Christmas.
- 6. There is nothing as special as a homemade gift. Visit The Caribou Pottery store and let your kid's imaginations run wild decorating bowls, plates and mugs.
- 7. Hungry? Grab some dinner at Dasher's Diner™ all-you-care-to-eat buffet in Holiday Hills™. KIDSiderate items include mac & cheese, pizza and chicken nuggets.
- 8. Take advantage of the games and KIDSiderate rides in Holiday Hills and make sure to check out The Stocking Stop™.
- 9. Slow down and take time to take in the sights. Eight million lights bathe the park in a warm glow.
- 10. On the way out, treat everyone to homemade s'mores (graham crackers, chocolate and marshmallow goodness) and enjoy them by the fire in England.
